WHY HAVE CLANS?

The purpose of clans is to promote communication between close cousins with common research interests. When they were set up the information from William E. Hendershott's book was used as the basis. [I will refer to this reference as WEH]. Clan A is descendants of Casper 1699; Clan B descendants of Michael 1712 and Clan C descendants of John 1720.

We have listed the clans and lineages that we know of our current members. Please check the information and send your editor corrections and/or additions. I hope you will also make contact with researchers working on you lines, compare notes and then report to the newsletter as you piece together your Hendershot line.

Clan A: Descendants of Casper 1699. The number following the letter identifies which son of Casper. A1 Peter1733. A2 Christopher 1734 (if a son) A3 Baltes before 1735 (if) A4 Jeremiah before 1738 (if) A7 Casper before 1749 (if)

WEH tells us that only Peter is identified as a son of Casper. He believed the others were "almost certain children since the children of his brothers are well established." Today some researchers question whether possibly Casper's brother Peter, whom it has been assumed died at a young age, grew to adulthood and perhaps was the father of some children ascribed to Casper.

Clan B Comments: Michael 1712, whose descendants belong to this clan, is believed to have been born in New Jersey. He married Elizabeth Schermerhorn about 1731. We know that he had at least nine children. Eight are mentioned in his will filed in Sussex County, NJ in 1786: John, Elizabeth (Bemer), Cateren (Dennis), Casper, Jacob, William, Sarah (Roof) and Suffiah (Roof). We know he also had a son, Michael, baptized at Rareton 23 April 1734 by .Rev. W. O. Berkenmeyer. Michael likely died before his father wrote his will.

Notes for Clan C While many believe that John 1720 is the best documented line, there is still more work to be done. WEH shows John born 23 Jan 1720 in New Jersey. His two wives were Ann Schooley and Catherine Bodine. His will was probated in 1798.
