1. The Member (Head of House) of the Clan will be entered first as published in the Book WEH-1988.
2. The following separation is used to mark start of all new data.

Expanded Source Reference and New Research By: Tjaksetic Started: 2000

3. The following line styles listed in the key should aid in keeping track of the sources and weight to be placed on its value.

Key:

Names Data supported member

- Data have hard copy
  - 1) Must list source and be a very good fit. Do not treat as a fact yet.
  - 2) Will have extract from actual document when possible.
  - 3) Note: The sloped style , used when info approaches fact.
- ⊙ WEH_1988 Source
  - 1) Extracted from the 1988 book and addenda, have not yet found the material the sources quoted.
- Data possible/ or need hard copy
  - 1) Info I have come across, with source that may or may not be of value.
- ❖ Comment
  - 1) Speculation, possible problems with existing information or just a note to the reader.

4. The Head of House and all their children will be displayed in this section: proven or not.
  - a. Treat each person as a detailed chapter in a book, father, mother and children. I have found the abbreviated source format widely used to be unclear and difficult to reconstruct.
    - i. Note: No detail of child that is next Head of House in our family tree will be entered on the parents page. A comment directing you to see next Head of House for details will be used.
  - b. Any data found for an individual is to be entered in that persons section. If a fact covers 4 people it should be listed with each of the (4 persons).
  - c. If a member is disprove his name will not be removed from that family, a note will be entered as to where that person has been placed including all the date to support that move.

5. Any type of info listed under the KEY will be upgraded to the style (● Data) when verified (Hard copy obtained).
6. Hope to add (◆ Fact) to the Key a line to replace the Date (●) this will be used when 2 or more data items support each other.
7. Grand-children
  - a. A list showing their name, date of birth, and their wife's will be displayed with Head of House.
  - b. No supporting data will be added, This is only for reference.
  - c. All supporting data or comments will be found on the Head of House page set up for their parents.
