

Football Findings

Artifacts From The First 100 Years of American Football

An Interesting Contract

Posted on July 30, 2013 by MM

A number of items from the files of Charlie Conerly have recently come up for auction. I thought this contract was a real time capsule – can you imagine what such a contract would look like today?

The New York Football Giants agree to hire Charlie Conerly, and Charlie Conerly agrees to serve as a talent scout for the years 1963 and 1964.

For his services, Charlie Conerly will receive the amount of $7,500 per year.

Agreed to this 18 day of April, 1961

Charles Conerly

Charles Conerly

NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS, INC.

John V. Mara

John V. Mara
President

This entry was posted in Uncategorized. Bookmark the permalink.
