

Football Findings

Artifacts From The First 100 Years of American Football

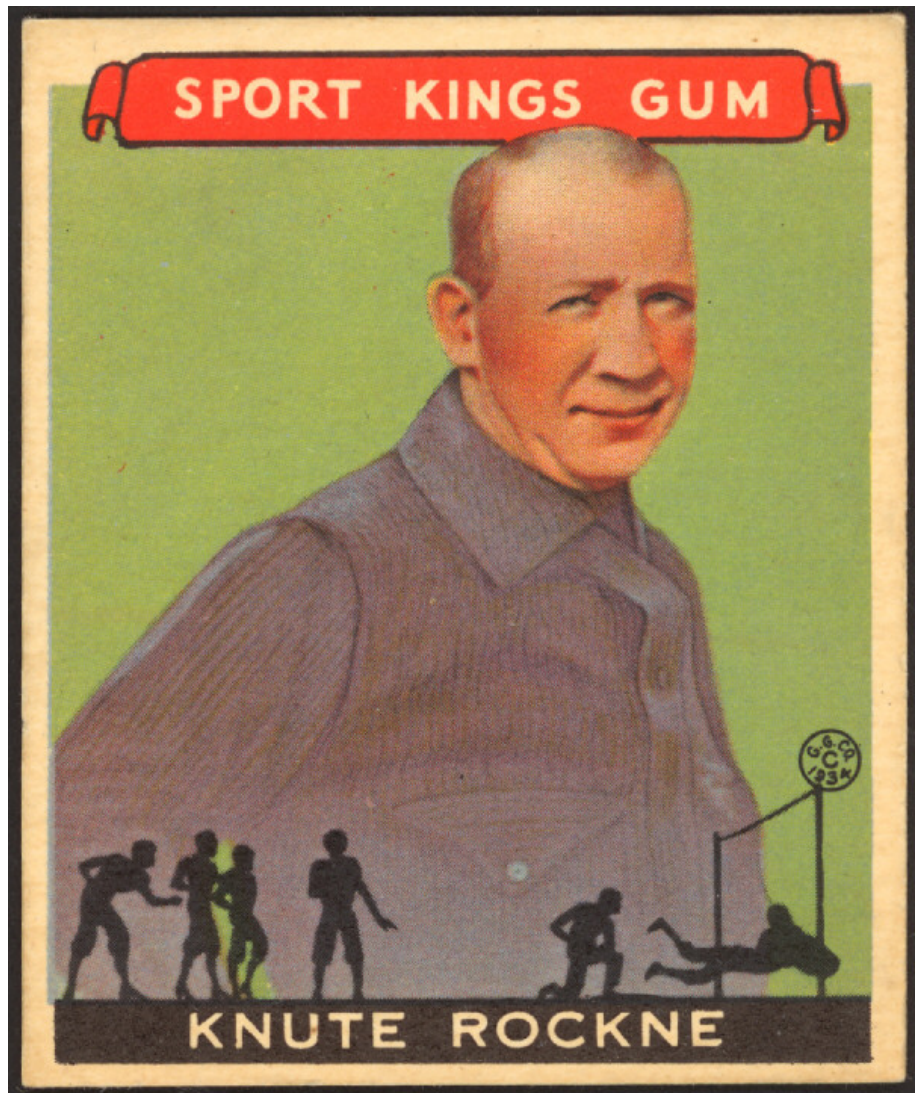

Coach

Posted on March 20, 2013 by MM

Of all famous football coaches, my favorite is Jim Lee Howell, the coach of the New York Giants from 1954 to 1960. His particular genius was hiring the right people to assist him and not getting in their way – a great management lesson. Here he is pictured with his two most famous assistants, Vince Lombardi and Tom Landry, along with Ken Kavanaugh and Ed Colman, the coaching staff that led the Giants to the 1956 NFL Championship

Of course, for coaching icons, no one surpasses the great Knute Rockne, head coach of Notre Dame from 1918 to 1930. His life and career have been chronicled in many books, but none better than Ray Robinson's Rockne of Notre Dame: The Making of a Football Legend (1999)

This entry was posted in Uncategorized. Bookmark the permalink.

Football Findings

Proudly powered by WordPress.