NEXT SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 5TH

CHICAGO BEARS VS. DAYTON TRIANGLES—CUBS PARK

One of the oldest and best known of the famous Ohio football elevens, the Dayton Triangles, will be the attraction at next Sunday's game here. Dayton has an unusually powerful team this fall, one of its victims being the Minneapolis Marines, who were swamped under a 17 to 0 score.

Last fall the Triangles gave the Staleys, as the Bears were known, one of their hardest battles. They were finally beaten by the slender margin of one touchdown.

Most of the 1921 Triangle team are back with Dayton, and among their new stars is Ken Nuffine, former Purdue full back, who was a favorite with the Staleys last fall.

Dale Seis, Pittsburgh's All-American guard, is back with the Triangles again. Tackle Nathaway of Indiana, Halfback Ullery of Penn State and Halfback Bacon of Wabash are among the other stars.

Several former Ohio college men are on the eleven, including End Thiele and Reese of Dennison, Tackle Sauers of Miami and Quarterback Mahrt of the University of Dayton.
