“The Fastest Growing Store in State College”

OUR one great aim is to give you a real store. Our stock is so very diversified because our customers ask for so many different articles. As space permits new departments will be added. Our contemplated new building will give us 12,500 square feet additional space, with an entrance on College Avenue.

¶ Our store is rapidly approaching the department store class.

¶ Everything for Students as well as many other articles.

ALMA MATER

For the Glory of old State,
For her founders strong and great,
For the future that we wait,
Raise the song, raise the song.

Sing our love and loyalty,
Sing our hopes that, bright and free,
Rest, O Mother dear, with thee,
All with thee, all with thee.

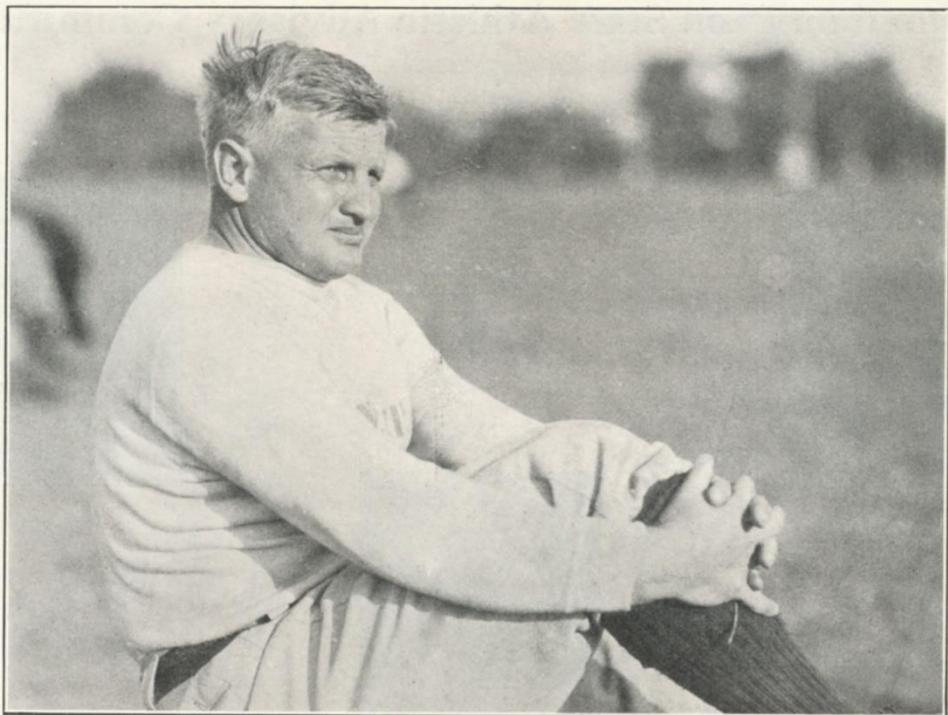

When we stood at boyhood's gate,
Shapeless in the hands of Fate,
Thou didst mould us, dear old State,
Into men, into men.

May no act of ours bring shame
To one heart that loves thy name,
May our lives help swell thy fame,
Dear old State, dear old State.

—F. L. PATTEE.

Penn State to Attempt Come-Back Against Carnegie Tech Eleven

Bowing in defeat at the hands of the Navy last week, 14 to 0, the Blue and White of Penn State was trailed in the dust for the first time in 32 consecutive games over a period of four years. The last previous defeat was by Dartmouth, early in October, 1919. Moreover, with the exception of the S. A. T. C. year when two games were lost, Penn State has lost but two contests in the four years that Hugo Bezdek has been at the helm—a record that speaks for itself when one considers the type of opponents played by Penn State each season.

The Navy defeat was not unexpected and it has not discouraged the Penn State players or coaches one bit. On the contrary, the Nittany Lions are out to demonstrate their comeback ability in the game with Carnegie Tech this afternoon. Penn State's playing against Navy was a big improvement over that against Syracuse the preceding week, while in practice this week the boys have been showing a spirit of grim determination that bodes ill for the teams that remain on Penn State's schedule.

In many ways, Carnegie Tech should be the favorite in today's game. The visitors boast of a veteran combination, with practically every player back from last year's scrappy team. Penn State, on the other hand, lost 15 first string players, with the result that thus far the coaches have had to spend most of their time experimenting with the limited amount of material on hand. However, it is felt that the Nittany Lions will show a real punch today for the first time this season.

Penn State and Tech have met on the gridiron on four previous occasions and each has resulted in a Blue and White victory. In 1910, the score was 61 to 0; in 1912, 41 to 0; in 1913, 49 to 0; and last year, 28 to 7. It has only been in the last two years that Tech has boasted of a powerful grid machine, however, and this year's aggregation is considered to be the greatest ever produced at the Plaid institution.

Following the Tech game, Penn State must meet Penn on November 18, and Pitt on Thanksgiving. Then preparations will be made for the trip to Pasadena where Penn State will uphold Eastern honors in the annual intersectional game of the Tourney of Roses on New Year's Day. Penn State is the first team ever invited for this contest previous to the close of the season, and the invitation comes as a tribute to the great record made the past three years by the team that is coached by Hugo Bezdek and his assistants, Bill Martin, Hinkie Haines and George Snell.

Announcement has been made that Penn State's share of the proceeds of the Western game will be turned over to the $2,000,000 Emergency Building Fund Campaign that is now being carried on by the College.

Penn State Songs and Yells

SONGS

BLUE AND WHITE

Where the vale of old Mt. Nittany
Meets the eastern sky
Proudly stands our Alma Mater,
On her hilltop high.

CHORUS

Flag we love, Blue and White
Float for aye, Old Penn State, o'er thee
May thy sons be leal and loyal
To thy memory.

When the evening twilight deepens,
And the shadows fall,
Lingers long the golden sunbeam
On thy western wall.—Cho.

When the shades of life shall gather,
Dark the heart may be;
Still the rays of youth and love
Shall linger o'er thee.—Cho.

VICTORY

Tune—(Original)

Come now, classmen, let us sing,
Loyally support the team;
We're here today with our colors gay,
Ready to win the fray—
Whether it be Pitt or Penn,
Harvard or Cornell,
Play the game, every man,
And we will win again.

CHORUS

Fight, fight, fight, for the blue and white,
Victory will our slogan be;
Dear Alma Mater, fairest of all,
Thy loyal sons will obey thy call
To fight, fight, fight, with all their might,
Ever the goal to gain
Into the game for Penn State's fame.
Fight on to victory,
All—along—the—line—(Cho. repeat).

—J. A. LEYDEN, '14.
