COACH HYLAND

This book is dedicated to Coach Hyland of Grinnell. There can never be too much said about his ability as Coach. To him, the credit must be given, of bringing back the old Grinnell fight and spirit to the team and students of Grinnell.

MEREDITH SWEET

Meredith Sweet, of Minneapolis, has started his year of captaincy of the football team by displaying some of the cleverest open field running, in practice, that has ever been seen on the home field. Because of this same ability, plus ability to pass, won him the honors of second All-Valley last year.

CAPTAIN JOHN RAFFETY

Captain John Raffety has been an outstanding performer in the Penn backfield during the past season and gives promise of making this his greatest year. He is one of the finest open field runners in the state and should prove a dangerous opponent to any team. He will head one of Penn's strongest teams and is a member of a classy backfield.

COACH SAUNDERSON

Coach Saunderson will again have an aggregation to be feared. He is a great strategist and last year he turned out a great line, probably the greatest in the Iowa Conference. This year he has much of the old material and with his ability he will turn out a winning team.

COACH BLACK

Kansas' greatest all-around athlete, Charles Black, is assistant football coach and head basket-ball. While at Kansas he made nine letters and his last year was chosen All-Valley half-back, in Football, All-Valley guard in Basketball and All-Valley out-fielder in Baseball. His ability to explain his methods as a player has made him a fine Basketball and Backfield Coach.

GRINNELL'S PROSPECTS

Grinnell has an unusually difficult schedule ahead of her and it will require a season of hard work on the part of the coaches and team and a fighting student body.

Coach Hyland says that the 1925 football team will never be licked and this should also be true of the student body.

Coach Hyland had great success in starting Grinnell on the incline in football last year. However, this year the squad will miss greatly the work of the two great tackles—Duke and Wood. The squad is also severely handicapped by injuries. But in spite of this the squad has been working hard and will fight to win that spirit which characterizes Grinnell teams.

PENN'S PROSPECTS

Penn college has the brightest prospects in years. With ten letter men back out of the winning eleven of last year, Coach Sanderson has fine material to work with. He also has a good group of incoming freshmen which will make some of the letter men work hard to hold down their positions. Penn has an advantage of two weeks practice over Missouri Valley schools which is very liable to determine the outcome of this first game. This being the first time in quite a few years that Penn College and Grinnell have met will naturally be an incentive to both teams. During the last few weeks, several injuries to letter men has put a dark cloud on the Penn campus, but their places have been respectably filled by new men. The fact that the backfield from last year is intact, gives Penn one of the best backfields in this part of the state. Last year's line, considered one of the best in the Iowa Conference, has been broken into by men quitting and injuries.
