EAGLES AND STEELERS RENEW OLD RIVALRY SUNDAY, OCT. 11

Spearheaded by the great Bobby Layne, now in his 12th season in the National League and apparently as sharp as ever, Pittsburgh's rejuvenated Steelers will be on Franklin Field next Sunday to meet the Eagles in another cross state grid rivalry. All of the Eagles-Steelers' games in the past have been exciting right up to the final gun.

Since Layne, former Detroit Lions' star, joined the Steelers late last October, the club is unbeaten. It opened the 1959 National League season by whipping the Cleveland Browns in a 17-7 upset before a packed house at Forbes Field, Pittsburgh and with Layne throwing two TD passes, kicking a 25-yard field goal and adding both extra points.

Defensively, the Steelers are perhaps the toughest in the Eastern Conference. Now, with an offense to balance it, Pittsburgh is title-minded. Its stock rose considerably after beating the Browns.

Layne's favorite target for his aerial shots is the sensational Jimmy Orr, one of the 1958 star rookies from the University of Georgia. This six-foot-two speedster last year caught 33 for 910 yards and seven touchdowns. His average per catch, 27.6 yards, was the highest in the league.

Tom "The Bomb" Tracy is the Steelers' main rushing threat. He's only 5'9 and weighs 205 pounds but as one Pittsburgh typewriter jockey put it, "He folds himself up like a ball and just rolls."

Tracy was third in the NFL in rushing in 1958 with 714 yards on 169 carries and five touchdowns. He also caught 32 passes for 535 yards and four more scores.

Heading up Pittsburgh's famed defense are the durable Ernie Stautner in his 10th year; linebacker Dale Dodrill, ninth season, and fourth year man Joe Krupa. Dodrill, 6'1, 215, ranks with the league's top linebackers and always has been a tough nut for the Eagles to crack.

When the Eagles and Steelers meet, the fur flies, so DON'T FORGET THE DATE: SUNDAY, OCTOBER 11 AT FRANKLIN FIELD.

H. Wilson Ltd.

From ankle-lovin' garter lengths to shou'der-huggin', thigh-squeezin' suits, Wilson's is fast turning downtown Chestnut Street into Philadelphia's own Madison Ave. Often called the home of the original welt seam, Hal Wilson's unpretentious shop is a memorial to men who will tolerate nothing less than authenticity in conservative tailoring. Stop in. Lose yourself among the racks, rows and tables of distinctive natural clothing and accompaniments. Then ask about Hal's Discount Policy. You'll wonder how he does it.

NEW YORK GIANTS

FRANK GIFFORD

Halfback—Offense; 8th Year; Southern California; 29; 205; 6'1; Bakersfield, Calif.

Pro: Drafted No. 1 in '52. One of the most versatile backs in NFL history, and one of the finest. In '56, third at pass catching and fifth at rushing, the first player to finish so high in both. Repeated in first 10 at both in '57 with a fourth catching and a 10th rushing. MVP of NFL in '56. Made Pro Bowl squad five straight years. On Bowl squad as defense player in '53 and as offense player in '54, first man to make it both ways. As a forward passer, has thrown 12 touchdowns in 41 attempts. Played 50 minutes both ways for last five games of '53, in emergency.

School: Genuine Iron Man triple-threat player in age of specialization at USC. As senior rushed 841 yards, completed 32 of 61 passes, scored seven touchdowns, and kicked 26 extra points and two field goals for 74 points. Of 111 passes in three years, only three were intercepted. Also was accurate punter and crack pass catcher. Played both single-wing tailback and T quarterback. Co-captain of West against East, and of North against South, and worked 60 minutes in both games. Halfback on American Football Coaches Assn. All-American team.

Personal: Born Aug. 16, 1930. Under contract to Warner Bros. for moving pictures. Has had featured roles. Has TV show and sports column in Bakersfield. Wife Maxine was sweetheart at USC; they have two sons and a daughter.

JIM PATTON

Halfback—Defense; 5th Year; Mississippi; 26; 180; 5'10; Belzoni, Miss.

Pro: Drafted No. 8 in '55. Sprinter-fast. In one game as rookie scored touchdowns on 98-yard kickoff return and 69-yard punt return. Regular right safety. Was NL interception leader in 1958 with 11, gaining 183 yards. Called by defensive coach Tom Landry "one of finest defensive backs" in pro ball.

School: Tabbed by many as best defense halfback in Southeastern Conference. Dash man on track team; Coach Howell saw him run 100 in 9.9 in competition.

Personal: Married, with two children.

ANDY ROBUSTELLI

End—Defense; 9th Year; Arnold; 31; 230; 6'1; Stamford, Conn.

Pro: Drafted No. 19 by Rams in '51. Traded to Giants for draft pick for '56. Provided tremendous lift in Giant title drive of '56. Annual as all-star pro defense end. Solves blocking pocket to hurry or drop quarterback. In one game in Cleveland he downed George Ratterman six times for 60 yards in Giant win. Great favorite with fans.

School: Little All-America 1948-49-50. All-New England 1949-50. Three letters in baseball.

Personal: Has two sports goods stores in Stamford area. Married, with five children.

KYLE ROTE

End—Offense; 9th Year; Southern Methodist; 31; 205; 6; San Antonio, Texas

Pro: Bonus choice in '51 draft. Second all-time Giant pass receiver, with 183 to 195 for Frank Gifford. Offense captain. One of league's consistently outstanding players. Probably would have amassed spectacular statistics were it not for knee injury as rookie, which required cartilage operation. Gradually shifted from heavy-duty ball carrying to end for last four years.

School: Unanimous All-America in '50. Sportsmanship Trophy of Southwest Conference. Made one of college football's greatest individual stands when he nearly snuffed Notre Dame's four-year unbeaten march in finale of '49 in Cotton Bowl.

Personal: Born Oct. 27, 1927. Lives in Scarsdale, N. Y. Represents Texas trucking firm and also has radio and TV interests. Played minor league baseball. Can give golf pros a tussle. Giant player representative. Club champ in almost every sport. Married, with three sons.
