NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS

Back Row—Hendrian, Pittsburgh; "Heinie" Benkert, Rutgers; Jack McBride, Syracuse; "Hinkey" Haines, Penn State.

A COMBINATION of circumstances prevented New York from winning a baseball championship this season, but this setback in prestige may be partly retrieved by the brilliant exploits of the New York Football Giants, who are now heading at full speed toward the title in the National Football League.

After early reverses by Providence and Philadelphia, the Giants, under the clever coaching of Bob Folwell, quickly began to find themselves and in succession Cleveland, Buffalo, Columbus, Rochester and Providence were defeated. The 13 to 12 victory over Providence on last Sunday came only after one of the most spectacular gridiron battles ever seen in this city and the Giants regarded it as complete satisfaction for their defeat in Providence when New York made its debut in the National League.

Now, imbued with the winning spirit and with the support of increasing thousands of appreciative fans, the Giants are prepared to do their utmost to win the remaining games at home and then to start on an invasion of the West, where some of the strongest elevens in the league are waiting to down the Giants, whose fame is now known throughout the country as one of the most remarkable teams ever gathered.
